

Greater Hartford News

July 21-28, 2004

HARTFORD'S ONLY CITY-WIDE COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER

Heavy Traffic on Asylum Hill

The two-day journey of this two-story Victorian House from 47 Sigourney Street to 21 Ashley Street drew fascinated spectators from throughout the Greater Hartford area this past Sunday and Monday. Above is the house navigating the turn from Farmington Avenue to Broad Street just after 11 am on Sunday morning. At right are Immanuel House residents Theresa Maguder, Josie Tofil and May Watson, who brought along their own portable chairs to watch the event. The house started its move early Sunday morning and finally settled into its new site around 7:30 pm on Monday. (Hart photos)

